U.S. Kids Golf Expands Training and Certification Opportunities

Peachtree Corners, Ga. - Expanding on its market-leading training for junior golf coaches worldwide, U.S. Kids Golf is offering several upcoming opportunities for coaches to become certified, or advance to the next level of accreditation, this spring.

With over 6,500 golf coaches from more than 60 nations having already participated in Certified Coach education, the Foundation is expanding its areas of training and credentialing to better serve coaches and the entire golf community.

U.S. Kids Golf Coach Certification is currently available as follows:

Certified Coach 1: Provides golf professionals and coaches knowledge about the foundational aspects of coaching young players.

Certified Coach 2: Focuses on various learning and personality styles and the importance of having a curriculum and pathway for both players and coaches.

Certified Pathway Coach 3: Offers training for coaches implementing the Player Pathway curriculum with a focus on having a “next” for students as they work through the various levels.

Online interactive “virtual seminars” are scheduled through April as follows:

March 14	Certified Coach 1 and Certified Coach 2
March 17	Certified Pathway Coach 3
March 29	Certified Coach 1
March 30	Certified Coach 2
April 19	Certified Coach 1 and Certified Coach 2
April 26	Certified Coach 2 and Certified Pathway Coach 3

Seminars are presented over 3 hours, with an online assessment required to complete certification. The cost for each is $149 and includes all materials and resources.
